Reflection on the Gospel-“The widow in today’s gospel seems to embody Jesus’s call to self-giving. Just before his own passion, Jesus praises her total self-gift, holding her out as a model of discipleship. Another way to understand the gospel is to see that this scene follows Jesus’s critique of scribes who thrive on their privileges and seek honor. They may be the ancient equivalent of televangelists who bilk unsuspecting widows of their last dollars, and Jesus warns his disciples never to be the kind of leader who preys on the most vulnerable.”

-Living Liturgy tm, Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time 2024

“You wonder why God, who is goodness Itself, allows us to suffer...But, what would you think of a doctor who lost his patient because he was afraid to give him the necessary but unpleasant treatment?” Sermon on Afflictions-Thoughts of the Curé D’Ars Pro-Life Quote-“In addition to enshrining pro-life laws and politics, the transformation of our culture also requires continual conversion of our own hearts, so that we can recognize in every person the face of Christ and place their needs before our own.”

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON-June 1-November 30-

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen St. Medard, patron of protection against Hurricanes, pray for us.

Second Bishop of Lafayette, following Hurricane Audrey)
