Reflection on the Gospel-When it comes to the “investments: of Christian living, the risks that make us “good and trustworthy” servants are found in the ordinary exchanges of daily life: forgiving rather than burying a grudge in our hearts; standing by another in times of sorrow, failure, or misunderstanding; associating with those some consider the “wrong kind” of people; laying down one’s life for another—perhaps a misunderstood friend, rebellious child, a terminally ill spouse, aged parents. All this “now” effort is preparing us for the “not yet: entry into the kingdom.
