Reflection on the Gospel-“In today’s gospel reading, the danger posed to the newborn Christ child is made known through the dreams of exotic visitors from another land. These visitors prompt us to reflect on the gifts that come to us in hidden ways from foreigners and strangers. Those who are different are often a source of fear for us, but in today’s gospel, they are friends, coheirs to the promise, and the first to recognize the hidden plans of God.”

-Living Liturgy tm, The Epiphany of the Lord 2025

Pro-Life Quote-“O Blessed Mother, you received the good news of the incarnation of Christ, your Son, with faith and trust. Grant your protection to all pregnant mothers facing difficulties. Guide us as we strive to make our parish communities places of welcome and assistance for mothers in need. Help us become instruments of God’s love and compassion.” USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life

Sept. 14, 2033. 1. Pray the novena prayer every day. 2. Read

Living out Christmas in the New Year-How do we live out the message of Christmas in the New Year, rather than pack it away with the ornaments? Each year, the Octave Day of Christmas falls on the first day of the New Year, on which we also celebrate the Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God.
Her open heart and courageous “yes” to God show us how to live year-round—with hearts open to the Lord, following where He leads. We are called to place our trust in Him, to enter compassionately into the suffering of others, and to love one another as Christ loves us. Like Our Blessed Mother welcomed Jesus, we are called to cherish and protect the gift of human life, at every stage and in every circumstance. One way to live out the message of Christmas and follow Our Lady’s example is to pray 9 Days for Life, a novena for the protection of human life taking place January 16-24. Each day of the novena features a different prayer intention, a short reflection, and more. Download the novena or sign up to get the daily prayers by email or text message
