Reflection on the Gospel-Where is Jesus now? In John 20, there are two parts to the answer. On Easter morning, we hear the first half: he has returned to the Father (20:1-9). At Mass on Tuesday, we'll hear the second half. Jesus appears to Mary Magdalene and sends her to the gathered community of disciples: there is where he's to be found alive (20:17). A gospel that began with "the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us" (1:14) concludes with the Word becoming enfleshed in each individual believer and in the faith community.

-Living Liturgy tm, Easter Sunday of the Resurrection 2024

"It is not so much what people suffer that makes the world mysterious; it is rather how much they miss when they suffer.
They seem to forget that even as children they made obstacles in their games in order to have something to overcome."

Pro-Life Quote-"There is an everyday heroism, made up of gestures of sharing, big or small, which build up an authentic culture of life...Part of this daily heroism is also the silent but effective and eloquent witness of all those 'brave mothers who devote themselves to their own family without reserve, who suffer in giving birth to their children and who are ready to make any effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to them the best of themselves'... We thank you, heroic mothers, for your invincible love! We thank you for your intrepid trust in God and in his love.
We thank you for the sacrifice of your life." (The Gospel of Life
